We believe color adds excitement, beauty, and personality to everything we do, including wood. Our passion for color is our daily motivation, and we're proud to be your color expert for every surface in home décor.

Coloring your mood with flowers

Home Fashion - Color Trends 2022

The global pandemic has changed the way we live and altered many aspects of home design. The new normal transformed our emotions and behaviors. There is a desire for healing, balance, and renewal. Color palettes in 2022 will continue to be inspired by nature, centering on soft, soothing colors that make us feel safe, revived, and comfortable at home.

Our new collection, Wood Vibes: Blossom, is inspired by flowers. Research has proven that flowers and plants have a positive impact on our well-being. Flowers are a natural moderator of mood and have strong positive effects on emotional health. You can use certain hues of flowers to invite good vibes that will color the mood of your home.

In this season's report, the refreshing collection of colors span from pastel tonalities like muted blue, green, and soft shades of lavender, to bold tonalities like earth brown, dark gray, and black. There are also a few key neutrals including light grays, whites, and warm beiges that bring a sense of peace to any home.
